

I have kinda improvised both guitar parts for this song. So we are playing a little bit of the rhythm section and the lean line throughout it too.

A	-----	-----2-----

G		---	2	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	6	---	---	---	---	---

The picking pattern for this song is really straight forward. All we are doing is strumming the first chord and then plucking the bottom 2 strings. We repeat that but for the rest of chord we just pluck the top 2 strings.

Its Just Forever

If you are playing a ukulele with a low G, play the first riff. If you have a high G, play the next one.

Take It Or Leave It

This is a tricky one to play as you really need to have a long nail that can replicate a plectrum. If you do happen to have one, we are using a technique called alternative picking. Its effectively using both sides of your nail to pluck the string. So you hit the first note with your down pluck and the second note with the up pluck.

Halo

I originally play this song with a low G string ukulele.

This song is split into 2 parts and i couldn't resist playing those sultry licks later on. Although it appears to be a guitar, sax and a synth. I have arranged my version of it on a ukulele.
